Executive Committees.

The following names compose the Central, District and County Executive Committees of the Conservative party.
Central Committee—Hon. P. M. Barringer, Chairman; W. R. Cox, R. H. Battle, C. M. Busbee, J. Q. DeCarteret, R. B. Haywood, William H. Jones, O. P. Meares, J. J. Davis and J. J. Litchford.

6th Congressional District—J. E. Brown, Mecklenburg; Walter L. Steele, Richmond; W. A. Graham, Jr., Lincoln. County Executive Committee: W. S. McDiarmid, Capt. W. S. Norment, Dan'l S. Morrison, Capt. W. P. Moore, S. B. Tolaz.

Dr. R. M. Norment.

We publish in another column a communication from Dr. R. M. Norment, independent candidate for Senator from this district, in reply to the strictures upon his course which appeared in the ROBERTSONIAN last week. He charges that our strictures were "false, slanderous, unprovoked and uncalled for," and asserts that he is supported in this view by everybody with whom he has conversed on the subject. What did we say that was so false, so slanderous, so unprovoked, so uncalled for that everybody should unite in describing it by the use of these ugly adjectives? We must have said something dreadful! But we made no charge that Dr. Norment himself does not admit to be true or we are not able to prove by unimpeachable witnesses. We charged that Dr. Norment was virtually a radical candidate, and expected to be elected by radical votes. Was this false? Was it slanderous? Hear his own admission: "It is true, I expect the support of the larger portion of the republican party, and I expect it too, without making a solitary concession or compromising a single principle I entertain." Is it false and slanderous to say that this man is not a true conservative? He expects the support of the radicals without concession or compromise of any principle he entertains. That is to say that his principles are so in accordance with those of the republican party that the larger portion of them will accept him as he stands and support him for his candidate for the State Senate.

The Doctor denies that he labored assiduously to secure the nomination of the Fair Blue convention, and challenges us to give the name of a single delegate appointed by the Lumberton convention whom he approached on the subject. It is not our business to call the names of individuals, but we appeal to the people of Robeson county and of the whole district to say whether it was not well understood that Dr. Norment desired the nomination, and whether it was not notorious that himself and his friends were laboring to secure it. He may not have appeared personally to any delegate appointed to the convention from this county, but he will not deny that he caused them to be approached by his friends. He will not deny that he approached the editor of this paper on Tuesday before the convention was held on Thursday and asked him to take the proxy of a delegate who could not attend, and who, he said, was pledged to support him, and cast that vote for him in the convention.

In the face of the fact that not a single delegate from either county thought worth while to present his name to the convention, he modestly assumes that he was the choice of two-thirds of the Conservative party of Robeson county! The Doctor's assertion that he would yield his claims to any good man from Columbus is new to our people in Robeson. While many of them preferred a Columbus man, the Doctor seemed to prefer a Norment man. He could have had a Columbus man as late as the 10th of June, but he was then as now what is known as a "Norment man." The proof is on him—his opponents would have supported a good Columbus or Robeson man—note the difference! The Doctor boasts of his Conservative supporters in this town. Unfortunately for their conservatism, however, two of the most outspoken of them were nominated to positions on the radical ticket by the convention which met in this town on Saturday last.

With characteristic modesty the Doctor asserts that there is not a voter of either party in Robeson county who will not say that it was he who won the victory in the campaign two years ago. If by this the Doctor means to say no one will deny that he was elected two years ago, we can quite agree with him; but if he means to arrogate to himself all the honor of the success of the ticket in that campaign, his extreme modesty allows him to claim more than we have ever heard claimed for him by any one else.

The Doctor charges that his opponent declared in a speech a few years ago, that the colored man ought not to have the right to vote, and that he did not want them to vote for him. This I suppose was in 1868, if not '67, when Doctor Norment stood about six feet, two inches high on the white man's platform, working hard against the constitution which allowed them the right to vote, has since denounced that constitution, and now goes back on himself and his party. The colored man may well say save me from such a friend! Consistency, that is not a jewel!

The charge that we ever "worked our press" to the injury of the conservative cause will be regarded by the people of this county as too ridiculous, if absurd to require any notice from us, and we must be permitted to say that it comes with a bad grace from a man in the position at present occupied by its author, who openly declares that he expects to defeat the nominee of the party in the district by means of radical votes.

We have never heard the Doctor accused of any very great cholaristic attainments. There can be no just ground of complaint on that score; but he is the only candidate we have heard of boasting that he had eight hundred dollars to spend in the campaign, and he cannot lack for friends if it is true, as he asserts, that two-thirds of the conservatives and the greater portion of the radicals of the county are committed to his support.

If it is true that there is so great unanimity in his favor, it is not strange that he should close his letter with an appeal to the people to suspend their judgment. The truth is that Dr. Norment knows as well as we do that he was not only not the choice of the Fair Blue convention, but that each of the delegates as were instructed by their constituents at all were instructed to oppose his nomination. He knows that his course is condemned by nine-tenths of the Conservatives of the district, and that its only possible effect will be to jeopardize the success of the Conservative ticket in the county. His own defeat is certain. With a large Conservative majority against him in the district he cannot hope to be elected. He is marching to certain and inevitable political ruin and disgrace; and nine-tenths of all those who are encouraging him in his course are renouncing his motives of friendliness to him or to the party to which he yet claims to belong.

CONVENTION AT WAGGONER, N. C.

On Saturday last a small number of negroes, abolitionists and anti-slavery men from the purpose of "nominating" a county ticket. Before the convention assembled a grave question had to be determined—whether the Fair Blue Convention should have a place on the ticket. Nat. McLean, by common consent, was to be one of the nominees for the House of Representatives, and Col. Sinclair wanted to be the other. But it was evident that a majority of the delegates were opposed to him, and a caucus was resorted to for the purpose of driving the "communality" to the support of the valiant Colonel, hero of Newbern and later of Europe. The caucus was held with closed doors and was lengthy and stormy. A majority of the delegates as was evident from the outset, were opposed to shouldering the record of this notorious corruptionist, and in favor of Mr. Eli Brumfield, an honest man and a gentleman against whom calumny, even, did not dare to lift its voice—a man identified in feeling an interest with the masses of the party, and who would truly and worthily represent them in the councils of the State. Mr. Brumfield and his friends, however, were too honest and high-minded to resort to any of the tricks of the demagogue or to use any dishonorable or unfair means to influence the nomination, and though the supporters of Mr. Brumfield were largely in the majority, they offered themselves to be overhauled by the superior tactics of the "fighting" Parson, and his few friends, and were compelled to submit to the nomination of a man whom they knew to be utterly unworthy of confidence or trust.

The caucus having adjourned, the convention, (so-called) assembled at 1 p. m., and the following nominations were formally made: House of Representatives—Col. Nat. McLean, Jas. Sinclair, Sheriff—Neil Townsend, County Treasurer—O. S. Hayes, Register of Deeds—E. K. Proctor, Clerk Superior Court—W. P. Barnes, County Commissioners: W. A. Stone, Jas. A. Lawson, Jas. McMillan, J. T. Bullard, A. C. Lewis. Coroner—Orrin Flowers. The colored troops fought nobly, but got no position on the ticket.

The Speaking Last Monday.

Hon. T. B. Ashe, our distinguished standard-bearer in this congressional district, and Col. W. L. Steele, Presidential Elector, visited our town on Monday last and entertained our people with two of the ablest, soundest and most powerful speeches to which the people of Robeson have lately been permitted to listen.

Mr. Ashe led off in a speech of about one hour in length, in which he reviewed the course of the republican party since its first organization in the South, and showed that its power and influence has always been directed, not to the enlarging or protecting of the rights and liberties of the people, but to the sole object of keeping themselves in office, and living in ease and luxury upon the hard earnings of the people, and announced the great issue of the present campaign to be Liberty against Despotism. He reviewed the course of President Grant from the day of his inauguration to the present time, and showed that his administration had been marked by a contempt of law and disregard of constitutional restraints and limitations that evinced a deliberate purpose on his part eventually to assume formally, as he has already done virtually, despotic powers. He showed how Grant had encouraged and supported Bill Holden in his war upon the people of this State, and how the republican party of the country had indulged and sustained every encroachment of the President upon the liberties of the people. But we will not attempt to give anything like a report of the speech. Suffice it to say that it was one of Mr. Ashe's most successful efforts, and made a profound impression upon the minds of all who heard it.

Col. W. L. Steele followed Mr. Ashe in a speech of about the same length, in which he gave the radical corruptionists such a castigation as they will not soon forget. Altogether the speeches were fully up to the expectations of the most sanguine friends of the distinguished orators, and presented a striking contrast to the low, dirty, demagogical harangues of Mrs. Lee and his squire Tar at this place, a few weeks ago.

Extraordinary Application.

Our town was honored, on Friday last, with a visit from the beautiful, accomplished and virtuous Rhody, widow of the great outlaw, now defunct, Henry Berry Lawry. The object of the Angel Queen in thus honoring our town seems to have been to make application to the county authorities for aid in providing for the orphan children of her deceased husband, of whom she says there are three left helpless upon her hands, and for whom she has now no means of providing the necessities of life.

In the absence of the county Commissioners, to whom the application should have been made, Mrs. Lawry waited upon the Sheriff and Clerk of the Superior Court, at their offices, but failed to impress them with "the story of her wrongs." Henderson, the "Herald Representative," so-called, had much to say about the "beautiful" Rhody, and from the county, under the circumstances, displays about as much "finesse" as could be reasonably expected even in the Queen of the "Swamp Angle."

Gov. Vance—Clerk, Mississippi.

Our readers will be gratified to learn that Hon. J. B. Vance has at length been relieved by Congress of all legal and political disabilities. The bill relieving this distinguished and honored son of North Carolina passed both houses of Congress on Monday the 10th inst., with only three dissenting votes in the Senate. The passage of the bill is attributed to the efforts in its behalf of our distinguished Senator, Hon. M. W. Ransom, whose eminent talents have already secured for him very considerable influence in the national councils.

Col. John D. Taylor, of Brunswick, has been nominated as conservative candidate for State Senator from the district composed of the counties of Brunswick and Bladen. Col. Taylor is an accomplished gentleman, a fine stump speaker and a man of great personal popularity and private worth, and his nomination shows a determination on the part of the conservative of that district to give the radical corruptionists "the best in their shop."

The rapid increase of business of the Wilmington, N. C., Life Insurance Company is most gratifying to the friends of that young but vigorous institution. We learn that the number of policies issued within the past four months has been more than double of the number issued by the Company during its whole previous existence. This extraordinary success is largely attributable to the energy and efficiency of Maj. F. H. Cameron, the Secretary, and Jas.

D. Brooks, Esq., General Supervising Agent, officers of whose distinguished services any Company might be proud to avail itself. The surest means of promoting the prosperity of our State is in snatching and building up her institutions. So long as we continue to patronize northern institutions to the neglect of our own—so long as every dollar of surplus money is sent out of the State—so long may we expect our own State to languish and our own people to lag behind in the march of prosperity and improvement.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st No restriction on residence of insured.
2d No extra charge on the lives of females.
3d Policies become absolute after five years.
4th The rates of interest on the Funds of the Company higher than those on the Funds of Companies based in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent North Carolinians, who are known to be men of integrity and worth.

6th The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th All the funds of the company are invested in this State and circulated among our people. This fact should encourage the Company, above all others, to North Carolina Holders. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to the friends of the old North State, and ask their support for this Home Institution, which while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up Home Industry.

"THE BEST"
Pianos
and Organs.

Pianos will bear in mind that by dealing with the above they deal with one who is thoroughly experienced in the business, and a competent judge of musical instruments; and a customer who is not willing to risk his reputation as a fair dealer in favor of worthless and spurious make.
Special Music at Publishers' prices.
Country Orders promptly attended to.
